

Privacy Policy

We take the privacy of our web site users very seriously. We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of our customers while providing a high quality and efficient service. This Privacy Policy outlines the types of information that is collected by us on this site, and how we use and protect

All personal information you submit to us will be held in accordance with our responsibilities under the Data Protection 1998 ("DPA").

We collect information from you only when you book or fill out an enquiry form. When booking or enquiring on our site we require your name, e-mail address, postal address, phone number and payment details.

Any of the information we collect from you is used to respond to your enquiry and/or process your booking and manage your stay with us.

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information.

After a transaction your payment information will not be stored on our computers.

We operate an in-house data protection policy for your personal details ensuring only those people who require them for the purposes of responding to your enquiry or managing your stay are able to access them.

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information. This does not include trusted third parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law.

YOUR DATA SECURITY

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect on booking and online.